Deluxe Systems, a leading provider of premium Italian windows and doors with a focus on sophisticated design and sustainability, exhibited at FIND – Design Fair Asia 2025.

This was the company's second time participating in the Fair to introduce once again their wide range of luxury Italian windows and doors to Singapore.

Visitors to the company's booth had the opportunity to see their wide range of products such as panoramic glazing, bespoke window systems, and architectural glass elements designed to elevate both luxurious residences and high-performance workplaces.

Germano Vitali, Director at Deluxe Systems, told Archibuild that the company offers an infinite colour options and different materials to match your architectural style.

They can also customise the product to meet specific needs.

Experts from Deluxe Systems were present at the booth to provide personalized guidance, discuss project requirements, and demonstrate how tailor-made solutions can elevate any design.

This year's showcase at FIND – Design Fair Asia 2025 also coincides with a significant milestone: the upcoming launch of Deluxe Systems' first Singapore showroom on 13 November 2025.

The dedicated space will give clients the opportunity to experience firsthand the beauty, performance, and craftsmanship of luxury Italian windows and doors.

"In Singapore, windows and doors go beyond function — they frame the skyline and connect our homes to the vibrancy of the city," said Germano Vitali. "We are excited to present our vision at FIND Design Fair Asia, ahead of the opening of our first Singapore showroom on 13 November. The new space will allow clients to experience, up close, the craftsmanship and elegance of our luxury Italian windows and doors."

The company's portfolio now features eight of Italy's most exclusive brands — Apexfine, Ponzio, Flessya, Faraone, Chirenti, MR Art Design, Dimensione Serramenti, and a newly added brand that will be unveiled on their website in the coming days. Each brand brings a unique combination of heritage, innovation, and design excellence to the fair.

The return of Deluxe Systems at FIND Design air Asia goes beyond a showcase of products. It reflects the company's role as a partner from the earliest design phase, providing comprehensive project support for architects, developers, and interior professionals.

The company's offering goes beyond sales: it includes professional installation by teams trained directly in Italy, and an ongoing scheduled maintenance programme that ensures long-term performance and client peace of mind. With this holistic approach, Deluxe Systems strengthens its position as a trusted partner in Singapore and the wider region, offering exclusive Italian solutions tailored to local living and working environments.
